Research Bulletin

OF THE

National Education Association

INDEX TO VOLUME XV

1937

The Research Bulletin is issued by the Research Division, a section of the headquarters staff of the National Education Association. This Division was created in February 1922, for the purpose of conducting scientific studies of special interest to members of the teaching profession.

RESEARCH DIVISION
NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
OF THE UNITED STATES
1201 Sixteenth Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C.
1937

INDEX TO VOLUME XV

Adult education. See Social Studies: areas of.
Agricultural experimental stations. See Hatch Act, 1887; Morrill Acts.
American Bankers' Association: referred to, 49, 50.
American democracy: bibliography, 244. See also Social studies: subjects included in.
American Federation of Labor: quoted, 141; referred to, 128.
American Institute of Public Opinion: referred to, 221.
American Library Association retirement plan. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
American Municipal Association: quoted, 140.
American Nurses' Association. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Anderson, Howard R.: referred to, 232.
Ashby, Lyle W.: referred to, 173.
Automotive industries: referred to, 49.

Bagley, W. C.: referred to, 37.
Bair, Frederick H.: referred to, 220.
Baker, O. E.: quoted, 169.
Beale, Howard K.: referred to, 220.
Beard, Charles A.: quoted, 183.
Bibliography: 55, 87, 144–45, 183, 238–46.
Birthrate. See Population: rates of natural increase in.
Blair Bills, 1884–1887: provision of, 157.
Butler, Nicholas Murray: quoted, 95.

California: educational opportunities of, 181.
Carnegie, Andrew: referred to, 136.
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching: quoted, 95.
Character training. See Social Studies: objectives in teaching.
Chism, Leslie L.: Model tax system, 45, 46, 163, 173; referred to, 37.
Civic responsibility. See Social studies: objectives in teaching.
Civil war. See Controversial subjects.
Civilian Conservation Corps: referred to, 20, 158.
Clark, John E.: quoted, 95.
Class distinctions. See Controversial subjects.
Clergymen, retirement plans for. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
College faculty retirement systems. See Retirement systems, College faculty.
Colleges and universities: federal aid for, 17, 20; national expenditures for, 7; percentage of national income used for, 38, 39, 42; state expenditures for, 8.
Columbia University. See Retirement systems, College faculty.
Committee on Salaries, Tenure, and Pensions of Teachers: quoted, 95.
Communism. See Controversial subjects.
Communities. See Local community as an area of study; Social studies, Areas of.
Consumer education. See Controversial subjects; Social studies: areas of.
Controversial subjects: methods of dealing with, 221; reasons given for avoiding, 220; subjects rated as, 221–25.
Corporate wealth: increase of, 170, 171; in relation to education, 171; unjust levy of taxes due to, 171.
Corporation organization tax. See National Tax Association.
Course-of-study bulletins, Social studies: emphasis of, 207–208; general plan of, 205; requirements of, 205; specific form of, 206; use and preferences of teachers for certain types of, 209.
Covert, Timon: quoted, 32; referred to, 19.
Cubberley, Ellwood P.: referred to, 157.
Current events. See Social studies: subjects included in.
Curriculum. See Social studies.

Delaware: largest school revenue provided by, 21.
Disability. See Retirement systems, Teachers'.
Dorn, Harold F.: quoted, 181.
Double taxation. See Taxation for education.

Eaves, Lucille: referred to, 113.
Economic ability of states to support education: cause of inequalities of, 167; corporate wealth as hindrance to, 171; luxury expenditures as indication of, 50; measures of, 37, 163; private expenditures as indication of, 46; relation of national income to, 37; relation of wealth to, 37, 39, 42, 43; savings accounts as indication of, 48; tax paying as indication of, 163.
Economic status of teachers: importance of, 66; 143.
Economics: bibliography, 244. See also Social studies, Subjects included in.
Economics and government, General theories of. See Controversial subjects.
Educational expenditures. See Expenditures for public education.
Educational opportunities, Inequalities of: accessibility of school buildings as, 161; average school term as, 161; cause of, 161, 165; number of school days as, 161; percentage of children to adults as, 164–65; percentage of nation's children to nation's income as, 164–65; pupil expenditures as, 161; training, ability, salary of teachers as, 161; uniform tax systems and, 173, 175; value of school property as, 161.
Egger, Rowland Andrews: referred to, 109.
Elementary and secondary schools: expenditures per pupil in, 9, 160; federal aid for education in, 17, 20; increased aid by state to, 21; national expenditures for, 7; percentage of national income used for, 38, 42; provision made by federal, state, and local governments to, 11, 54; state expenditures for, 8.
Elementary school teachers: areas of social study program judged important by, 199; characteristics of course-of-study bulletin preferred by, 205–206; controversial subjects listed by, 218–19; evaluation questions for, 217; instructional aid used by, 212; methods used in dealing with controversial subjects by, 221–25; needs and changes reported by, 216–17; objectives judged important by, 194–95; outside agencies contacted by, 214; periodicals most helpful to, 214; reasons of, for not contacting outside agencies, 215; supplementary books used by pupils and, 238–245; technic preferred by, 211; tests for social studies used by, 232-33; texts used by, 241–42, 244; topics in the local community selected for study by, 227–29. See also Salaries of school employees.
Expenditures for public education: at different educational levels, 7, 8; national income compared to, 6, 7, 37, 38; personal expenditures compared to, 48, 49; public expenditures compared to, 14, 15; stabilization of good revenues for, 53; tax collections used for, 12, 13; wealth, value of school property compared to, 40, 41. See also Elementary and secondary schools; Colleges and universities; Federal aid; Local aid; State aid; Teacher-training institutions.

Fascism. See Controversial subjects.
Federal aid: administration of schools under, 182; alleviation of unjust taxes responsibility of, 171; arguments against education by, 20, 179; at different educational levels, 7, 8; certain state educational purposes supported by, 18, 19; control of education by, 182; education is smallest expenditure of, 20; educational expenditures compared to those of, 176, 177; emergency aid for education under, 17; forces causing support of schools by, 157; functional distribution of federal expenditures of, 16; history of support of schools by, 157, 158; increase of total school revenue received from, 10, 11; land grants by, 157; National Teachers' Association proposal for, 158; purposes of expenditures of, 16; responsibility for adequate education per pupil by, 175, 183; should education be financed by, 54; taxes used for education collected by, 12, 13; to elementary-secondary income, 10; why educate by, 182. See also Harrison-Black-Fletcher Bill.
Federal emergency aid: education under, 10, 17, 24.
Federal Emergency Relief Administration: referred to, 17.
Federal Employees' Retirement Act. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Federal government and education. See Federal aid.
Federal taxation: relation of area of collection to, 179. See also Taxation for education.
Fire protection. See Weeks Act, 1911.
Flanigan, Sherman E.: referred to, 136.
Foreign governments, Policies and practises of. See Controversial subjects.
Furst, Clyde: quoted, 95.

Geography: textbooks in, 242. See also Social studies.
Givens, Willard E.: forewords by, 4, 60, 92, 156, 188.
Government. See Federal aid; Local aid; Social studies: areas of; State aid.
Governmental Research Association: quoted, 140.
Group living. See Social studies: objectives in teaching.

Hanna, Paul: referred to, 230.
Harmon Association for the Advancement of Nursing. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Harrison, Senator Patton: quoted, 184.
Harrison-Black-Fletcher Bill: provisions of, 158, 159; referred to, 54.
Harvard University. See Retirement systems, College faculty.
Hatch Act, 1887: provisions of, 157.
Hawkes, Herbert E.: referred to, 232.
Hayes, Rutherford B.: quoted, 159.
Hays, Will: quoted, 152.
High-school teachers' salaries. See Salaries of school employees.
Hildreth, Gertrude E.: referred to, 232.
History: texts used in, 241. See also Social studies: subjects included in.
Hoar Bill of 1870: provision of, 157.
Hodgkins, George W.: referred to, 211, 226.
Horn, Ernest: referred to, 211, 218.
Huggens, George A.: referred to, 132.

Illiteracy. See Blair Bills, 1884-1887; Hoar Bill of 1870.
Income tax. See Taxation for education.
Industrial pension plans: bibliography, 145. See also Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Industry. See Controversial subjects; Social studies: areas of.
Inequalities of educational opportunities. See Educational opportunities, Inequalities of.
Ingalls W. R.: referred to, 42.
Inheritance tax. See Taxation for education.
Inquiry forms: as used in local teacher retirement systems, 146–51.
International relations. See Controversial subjects; Social studies: areas of.
Investment and personal finance. See Social studies: areas of.

Junior high-school teachers: areas of social studies program judged important by, 200–201; characteristics of course-of-study bulletin preferred by, 205–206; controversial subjects listed by, 218–19; evaluation questions for, 217; instructional aid used by, 212; methods used in dealing with controversial subjects by, 221–25; needs and changes reported by, 216–17; objectives judged important by, 194–95; outside agencies contacted by, 214; periodicals most helpful to, 214; reasons of, for not contacting outside agencies, 215; supplementary books used by junior high-school pupils and, 239, 245; technic preferred by, 211; texts for social studies used by, 241–44; topics in the local community selected for study by, 227–29. See also Salaries of school employees.

Keith, John H.: referred to, 37.
Kelley, T. L.: referred to, 232.
Krey, A. C.: referred to, 232.

Labor problems. See Controversial subjects.
Land grants. See Federal aid.
Latimer, Murray Webb: referred to, 129, 131.
Library of Congress: referred to, 17.
Lindquist, E. F.: referred to, 232.
Local aid: decline in support of education by, 35, 36; decrease of total revenues from, 10, 34, 54; increased reliance on federal aid by, 16; local initiative safeguarded by, 54; percentage of school revenue furnished by, 36; tax used for education collected by, 12, 13; to elementary-secondary school income, 10; total amount of school income provided by, 11.
Local community as an area of study: methods of studying the, 227; percentage characteristics of, 191; percentage of economic level of, 191; percentage of nationality in, 191; topics selected by teachers concerning, 227–29; types of contacts to make in, 230.
Local government and education. See Local aid.
Local retirement systems, Teachers'. See Retirement systems, Teachers'.
Lorimer, Frank: quoted, 181.
Lutz, Harley L.: referred to, 25.

Mann, C. R.: referred to, 232.
Marble, A. P.: referred to, 94.
Mechanical arts. See Morrill Acts.
Michigan Department of Public Instruction: quoted, 227.
Migration, Interstate: gain and loss of states thru, 180.
Migration, Rural: by regions, 168; movement of wealth from farms by, 168; wealth migration result of, 169.
Missouri: teachers and social security in, 142.
Model tax plan. See National Tax Association.
Morrill Acts: provision of, 157.
Mort, Paul R.: referred to, 46, 163.
Moulton, Harold G.: referred to, 42.

National Council of Teachers' Retirement Systems: referred to, 95, 96.
National Education Association: Committee on Tenure, quoted, 70; Committee on Retirement Allowances, referred to, 95, 96; Department of Classroom Teachers, referred to, 115; Department of Elementary School Principals, referred to, 69; Department of Superintendence, quoted, 230, referred to, 199, 218; Legislative Commission, see Harrison-Black-Fletcher Bill, 1936; National Council for the Social Studies, referred to, 225; Research Division, quoted, 66.
National government. See Local aid; Federal aid; Social studies: areas of; State aid.
National income: expenditures for public education compared to, 6, 7, 37, 38; indication of economic ability, 163.
National Industrial Conference Board: referred to, 16, 17, 34, 50, 163, 171.
National League of Nursing Education. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
National Organization for Public Health Nursing. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
National Tax Association: referred to, 45, 52, 53; model tax plan, 45, 46, 53, 113, 173.
National Teachers' Association: referred to, 158.
National wealth: compared to corporate wealth, 170, 171; effects on education, 45; relation of, to support of education, 42–45; indication of economic ability, 163. See also Migration, Rural.
National Youth Administration: referred to, 158.
Nationalities. See Controversial subjects.
Naziism. See Controversial subjects.
Negroes: migration of, 169.
New York: organization of retirement system led by, 93.
New York City Teachers' Mutual Life Assurance Association: referred to, 93.
Newcomer, Mabel: model tax plan, 45, 46, 162, 163; referred to, 37.
Norton, John K.: referred to, 37, 163.

Odum, Howard W.: referred to, 167.
Ohio Company. See Federal aid: history of.
Old age. See Retirement systems, Teachers'.
Old Age and Disability Annuity Association: referred to, 93.
Old age assistance. See Social Security Act.
Oklahoma: teachers and social security in, 142.
Ordinance of 1785, 1787. See Federal aid: history of.
Organizations and their influence. See Controversial subjects.

Parents: attitude on social questions of, 191.
Pensions. See Retirement systems, Other occupations; Retirement systems, Teachers'.
Personal analysis. See Social studies: areas of.
Pickering, Colonel Timothy: referred to, 157.
Pittsburgh Citizens' Committee on Teachers' Salaries: referred to, 71.
Policies and practises of local, state, and national government. See Controversial subjects; Social studies: areas of.
Policies in commerce or business. See Controversial subjects.
Politics. See Controversial subjects.
Population: rates of natural increase in, 166, 167; redistribution of, 181; rural movement of, 169. See also Migration, Interstate; Migration, Rural.
President's Advisory Committee on Education: referred to, 158.
Professional workers' retirement plans. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Prominent people, Criticism of. See Controversial subjects.
Property tax. See Taxation for education.
Public opinion, Formation of. See Social studies: areas of.
Public school expenditures. See Expenditures for public education.
Public school property: national wealth and value of, 39, 40, 43.
Public service employees' retirement plans: bibliography, 144. See also Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Public Works Administration: referred to, 17.

Questionnaire: as used in survey for salaries for school employees, 86; as used in the study of social studies, 247.

Racial problems. See Controversial subjects.
Railroad employees' retirement plans. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.
Realism. See Social studies: objectives in teaching.
Relief. See Federal emergency aid; Federal Emergency Relief Administration.
Religion. See Controversial subjects.
Retired teachers. See Retirement systems, Teachers.'
Retirement systems, College faculty: adopted by Columbia, 136; adopted by Harvard, 136; adopted by Yale, 136. See also Retirement systems, Teachers'; Social Security Act.
Retirement systems, Other occupations: American Library Association retirement plan, 133–37; American Nurses' Association, 132; certain groups receiving allowances from, 138; clergymen retirement plans, 131–32; Federal Employees' Retirement Act, 132; Harmon Association for the Advancement of Nursing, 132; industrial pension plans, 129; National League of Nursing Education, 132; National Organization for Public Health Nursing, 132; professional workers' retirement plans, 130–31; public service employees' retirement plans, 132; railroad employees' retirement plans, 130; trade union benefit plans, 128. See also Social Security Act.
Retirement systems, Teachers': administration of state and local, 120–23; annuities paid by state, 105; bibliography, 144; certain features of statewide, 100–104; comparison of local, 108–109; disability allowances under, 105, 106, 115; factors influencing retirement under, 112–13; features of local, 107; financial management of state and local, 124–27; financial statistics of local, 119, 123; financial statistics of state, 118, 123; history and development of, 93; membership in, 106, 112; number retired and allowances paid by, 117; number retired and allowances paid by state, 116; principles of, 96; relation of retirement allowance in, to salary in active service, 114; reports of, 145; retirement age under, 105; service requirements of the state, 105; sources of income for, 122; statistics of local, 110–11; superannuation or service retirement under, 114; trend of local, 106; types of, 98, 99. See also Retirement systems, College faculty; Social Security Act.
Rogers, Howard J.: referred to, 95.
Rural schools: salaries of teachers in, 83.
Rural teachers. See Federal emergency aid.
Russell, Charles: referred to, 232.

Salaries of school employees: distribution of salaries paid certain administrative and supervisory officers in cities over 30,000, 1936–37, 72; distribution of salaries paid certain administrative and supervisory officers in cities under 30,000, 1936–37, 73; distribution of salaries paid other school employees in cities over 30,000, 1936–37, 77; distribution of salaries paid other employees in cities under 30,000, 1936–37, 77; distribution of salaries paid principals in cities over 30,000, 1936–37, 70; distribution of salaries paid principals in cities under 30,000, 1936–37, 71; distribution of salaries paid secretarial and clerical employees, 1936–37, 76; distribution of salaries paid teachers in cities over 30,000, 1936–37, 68; distribution of salaries paid teachers in cities under 30,000, 1936–37, 69; median and arithmetic mean salaries paid junior and senior high-school teachers by cities over 100,000, 1936–37, 81; median and arithmetic mean salaries paid kindergarten and elementary-school teachers by cities over 100,000, 1936–37, 80; median salaries paid elementary-school teachers in cities, 1936–37, 74; median salaries paid high-school teachers in cities, 1936–37, 75; median salaries paid junior high-school teachers in cities, 1936–37, 74; median salaries paid superintendents of schools in cities, 1936–37, 75; median salaries paid teachers in cities over 30,000 by states, 1936–37, 78; median salaries paid teachers in cities under 30,000 by states, 1936–37, 79; rural teachers, 83–85; special salary tabulations, 80, 81, 82; trends in elementary-school teachers' salaries, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 67; trends in high-school teachers' salaries, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 67; trends in salaries paid employees in cities 2,500 to 5,000, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 65; trends in salaries paid employees in cities 5,000 to 10,000, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 65; trends in salaries paid employees in cities 10,000 to 30,000, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 64; trends in salaries paid employees in cities 30,000 to 100,000, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 63; trends in salaries paid employees in cities over 100,000, 1930–31 to 1936–37, 62.
Sales tax. See Taxation for education.
School as a social institution. See Social studies: areas of.
School costs. See Expenditures for public education.
School problems and politics. See Controversial subjects.
Secondary schools. See Elementary and secondary schools.
Senior high-school teachers: areas of social studies program judged important by, 201–202; characteristics of course-of-study bulletin preferred by, 205–206; controversial subjects listed by, 218–19; evaluation questions for, 217; instructional aid used by, 212; methods used in controversial subjects by, 221–25; needs and changes reported by, 216; objectives judged important by, 194–96; outside agencies contacted by, 214; periodicals most helpful to, 214; reasons of, for not contacting outside agencies, 215; supplementary books used by senior high-school pupils and, 240, 245; technic preferred by, 211; tests for social studies used by, 236; texts used by, 241-44; topics in the local community selected for study by, 227-29.
Severance tax. See National Tax Association.
Sex questions. See Controversial subjects.
Shaw, Reuben: referred to, 113.
Smith-Hughes Act, 1917: provision of, 158.
Smith-Lever Act, 1914: provision of, 157–58.
Smith-Towner Bill: referred to, 158.
Smithsonian Institute: referred to, 17.
Social customs and attitudes. See Controversial subjects.
Social effects of the rise of science. See Social studies: areas of.
Social intercourse, Interdependence of. See Social studies: areas of.
Social legislation and reform. See Controversial subjects.
Social problems: bibliography, 244. See also Social studies: subjects included in.
Social Security Act: old-age benefits under, 130, 139; proposed amendments to the, 140–41; provision of the, 139; status of teachers under the, 139, 141.
Social studies: adequacy of attainment of objectives of, 195–97; areas of, 199; controversial subjects as an integral part of, 218; curriculum for, 193; definition of, 189; evaluation questions for teachers and administrators in teaching, 217; importance of objectives on basis of classification other than grade levels in, 195; importance of objectives on basis of various grade levels in, 194; needs and changes in teaching, 216; objectives in teaching, 193; opinion of elementary-, junior high-, and senior high-school teachers regarding adequacy of present teaching of, 199–202; outside agencies contacted in teaching, and reasons against, 214; periodical most helpful in teaching, 214; subjects included in, 189; supplementary instructional aid to teaching of, 212–14; supplementary books used by pupils and teachers in, 238–39, 245; technic of teaching, 211; tests used by teachers for, 232; texts used by pupils and teachers in, 241–42, 244. See also Course-of-study bulletins; Local community as an area of study.
Social studies curriculum yearbook: referred to, 193, 218.
Social welfare: federal expenditures for, 16, 17.
Socialism. See Controversial subjects.
Sociology: bibliography, 244. See also Social studies: subjects included in.
Special salary tabulations: example of, 82.
State aid: amount of financial support of education to be assumed by, 54; apportionment of, 30, 31; at different educational levels, 7, 8; basis for distribution of, 18, 32; competing with federal aid, 29, 33; effectiveness of aid by, 29; expenditures for relief by, 24; functional distribution of public expenditures of, 23; increase of total federal revenue received by, 10; increased aid to education by, 21; factors determining expenditures in, 7; limitation of corporate ownership of wealth to, 171; maximum expenditure per enrolled pupil in, 10; methods of distributing, 33; minimum expenditure per enrolled pupil in, 10; percentage of elementary-secondary school receipts from, 21, 22; tax resources required by, 172; taxes used for education as collected by, 12, 13; to elementary-secondary school income, 10; total amount of school income provided by, 11; trend of, 32, 33. See also Economic ability of states to support education.
State government and education. See State aid.
State retirement systems, Teachers'. See Retirement systems, Teachers'.
State salary schedules. See Salaries of school employees.
State school revenue. See Taxation for education.
State taxes. See Taxation for education.
Sterling-Towner Bill: referred to, 158.
Sterling-Reed Bill: referred to, 158.
Stewart, Alice G.: referred to, 226.
Stock transfer tax. See National Tax Association.
Studensky, Paul: referred to, 93.
Superintendents' salaries. See Salaries of school employees.
Surveys: salaries of school employees, plan of, 61; study of social studies, 189.
Symmes, John C.: referred to, 157.

Tax Research Foundation: referred to, 35.
Taxation and public finance. See Social studies: areas of.
Taxation for education: diversification of revenues, 175; double taxation, 29; income tax, 24; information system of, 45, 53; inheritance tax, 45; property tax, 24, 34, 35; relation of national-corporation wealth controversy to, 171; relative per capita taxpaying ability of the states, 1930, 162, 163; sales tax as, 28; sources of, 26. See also National Tax Association.
Teacher-training institutions: federal aid for, 20; national expenditures for, 7; percentage of national income expended on, 42; state expenditures for, 8.
Teacher welfare. See Controversial subjects.
Teachers: salary survey, 59–86.
Teachers' associations. See Retirement systems, Teachers'.
Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America: referred to, 136.
Teachers' salaries. See Salaries of school employees.
Teaching social studies program. See Social studies.
Technic of teaching. See Social studies.
Tennessee Valley Administration: referred to, 17.
Tests. See Social studies.
Texas: teachers and social security in, 143.
Townsend, Mary E.: referred to, 226.
Trade union benefit plans. See Retirement systems, Other occupations.

United States Bureau of Indian Affairs: referred to, 17.
United States Congress, House, Committee on Education: referred to, 158.
United States Congress, Senate, Committee on Education and Labor: referred to, 158.
United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Census: referred to, 21, 34.
United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce: referred to, 5, 6, 37, 132.
United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Internal Revenue: referred to, 179.
United States Department of the Interior, Office of Education: referred to, 17, 32, 161.
United States Treasury Department: referred to, 29, 33.
Universities. See Colleges and universities.

Vocational analysis and information. See Social studies: areas of.
Vocational education: federal aid for, 10. See also Smith-Hughes Act, 1917.

War and peace. See Controversial subjects.
Weeks Act, 1911: provision of, 157.
Works Progress Administration: referred to, 17, 231.

Yale University. See Retirement systems, College faculty.